(7) An application referred to in subsection (5) shall be made within a period of three years after the date the return was filed by the applicant or, in the event an assessment is made by the Comptroller after the three-year period, may be made within sixty calendar days after the date on which notice of such assessment is served on the applicant.

(2) The liability to pay excise tax arises by operation of this section and shall not depend on the Comptroller making an assessment of the excise tax due, nor on the registered manufacturer making a return in accordance with section 23.

Excise Tax Act, 2010 – 4.

(3) A registered manufacturer shall not enter goods for home use from the manufacturer's approved warehouse if the entry would result in the amount of excise tax payable by the manufacturer, but not yet paid, exceeding the amount of the security arrangement referred to in section 13 upon registration, unless

- (a) the Comptroller, on application, in writing, by the registered manufacturer, gives permission for the entry;
- (b) the registered manufacturer, subject to the approval of the Comptroller, increases the amount of the security arrangement referred to in section 13; or

- (4) For the purposes of collecting and enforcing the payment of excise tax imposed under this Act on goods imported into the Federation, the Customs Tariff Act and any other enactment relating to the importation of goods shall apply as if excise tax were an import duty.

29. Allocation of payments.

Where, in addition to any amount of tax which is due and payable by any person under this Act, any amount of interest or penalty is payable, any payment made by the person in respect of such tax, interest, or penalty which is less than the total amount due shall be deemed to be made

- (a) first, in respect of such interest;
- (b) to the extent that the payment exceeds the amount of the interest, then in respect of penalty; and

(2) The lien described in subsection (1) shall not be valid against the interest of a person who is a purchaser from the taxpayer or a holder of a security interest in the property, if the person's ownership of or other interest in the property arises before the person has had actual knowledge of the lien, and before notice of the lien has been duly registered by the Registrar.

(3) Where a person is in default of paying tax, the Comptroller may, by notice in writing, apply to the Registrar of the Court to register a security interest in any fixed assets (including capital goods), which are owned by that person, to cover any unpaid tax in default, together with any expense incurred in recovery proceedings.

(4) Where the Comptroller makes an application under subsection (3), the Registrar shall register the notice of security without fee, as if the notice were an instrument of mortgage over, or charge on, as the case may be, such asset, and the registration shall operate while it subsists, subject to any prior mortgage, or charge on, the asset, in all respects as a legal mortgage over the asset or charge on the asset to secure the amount due.
